ORDER

AND NOW, this 26th day of July, 2023, upon consideration of the plaintiff, Gilberto Benz-Puente, Jr.’s “Affidavit for Postponement of Court Fees,” which the court deems to be a motion to proceed In Forma Pauperis (ECF No. 6), and his pro se complaint (Doc. No. 2), it is ORDERED that:

1. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to mark Puente’s “Affidavit for Postponement of Court Fees,” as participant-view only.
2. Leave to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.
3. The complaint is DEEMED filed.
4. The complaint is DISMISSED IN PART WITH PREJUDICE AND IN PART WITHOUT PREJUDICE for the reasons stated in the court’s memorandum opinion as follows:
 - a. All federal law claims are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B) for failure to state a claim.
 - b. All state law claims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
5. Benz-Puente may file an amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this order to reassert his state law claims if he is capable of alleging diversity jurisdiction under 28

U.S.C. § 1332(a). Otherwise, Benz-Puente may reassert those claims in an appropriate state court. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Benz-Puente's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. Benz-Puente may not reassert any claim that has already been dismissed with prejudice. When drafting his amended complaint, Benz-Puente should be mindful of the court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial complaint as explained in the court's memorandum opinion. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the court.

6. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Benz-Puente a blank copy of the court's form complaint for an unrepresented litigant to file a civil action bearing the above civil action number. Benz-Puente may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.¹

7. If Benz-Puente does not wish to amend his complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the court within thirty (30) days of the date of this order stating that intent, at which time the court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re

Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding “that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs’ decision not to replead those claims” when the district court “expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims”).

8. If Benz-Puente fails to file any response to this order, the court will conclude that he intends to stand on his complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.² See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239–40 (explaining that a plaintiff’s intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

9. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to close this case.

BY THE COURT:

EDWARD G. SMITH, J.

² The six-factor test announced in Poulis v. State Farm Fire & Casualty Co., 747 F.2d 863 (3d Cir. 1984), is inapplicable to dismissal orders based on a plaintiff’s intention to stand on his complaint. See Weber, 939 F.3d at 241 & n.11 (treating the “stand on the complaint” doctrine as distinct from dismissals under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) for failure to comply with a court order, which require assessment of the Poulis factors); see also Elansari v. Altria, 799 F. App’x 107, 108 n.1 (3d Cir. 2020) (per curiam). Indeed, an analysis under Poulis is not required when a plaintiff willfully abandons the case or makes adjudication impossible, as would be the case when a plaintiff opts not to amend his complaint, leaving the case without an operative pleading. See Dickens v. Danberg, 700 F. App’x 116, 118 (3d Cir. 2017) (per curiam) (“Where a plaintiff’s conduct clearly indicates that he willfully intends to abandon the case, or where the plaintiff’s behavior is so contumacious as to make adjudication of the case impossible, a balancing of the Poulis factors is not necessary.”); Baker v. Accounts Receivables Mgmt., Inc., 292 F.R.D. 171, 175 (D.N.J. 2013) (“[T]he Court need not engage in an analysis of the six Poulis factors in cases where a party willfully abandons her case or otherwise makes adjudication of the matter impossible.” (citing cases)).
